

K-LOVE provides me with up to date news and great christian music. There is only one other station I listen to as an alternative and would be very sad to see this station go away. This station serves the public interest, especially our children, by providing an alternative to the offensive material usually offered by other radio stations. K-LOVE would be greatly missed by my family and friends.